MEET YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

I'm a small-town girl with a big love for storytelling through photography, and if we're being honest, I'm probably going to feel like a friend before I ever feel like "your photographer." I specialize in weddings, couples, portraits, and families, and I focus on the real, raw, candid moments, the ones that feel like you. The belly laughs, quiet glances, happy tears, and everything in between. Because the best photos aren't just seen... they're felt.

Photography has always had my heart, even when my path first led me elsewhere. I earned a degree in Construction Management and spent some time in Real Estate, but the pull toward photography never faded. Eventually, I listened, and turning my passion into a full-time career was the best decision I've ever made. Getting to document love stories and family memories never feels like "work," and I don't take that lightly.

When I'm not behind the camera, you'll usually find me outside, hunting, working out, volunteering as a firefighter, or soaking up slow, simple days on the farm with my little boy and family. I love fresh air, muddy boots, quality time with the people I love, and the kind of moments that don't seem big at the time but end up meaning the most.

That love for real life is what shapes the way I photograph. I'll be the one hyping you up, calming your nerves, fixing flyaways, and quietly capturing the moments you didn't even realize were happening. Whether it's your wedding day or a regular Tuesday with your people, I'm here to document your story in a way that feels natural, genuine, and true.

I'm really glad you're here, and I'd love to tell your story.

Let's capture something real together.

ENGAGEMENT

Your engagement is a beautiful moment and memory of your love story, and my engagement photography sessions are designed to capture the essence of this special time. From the excitement of the proposal to the quiet moments shared between you and your partner, my goal is to create timeless images that reflect the unique connection you share.

BRIDALS

Bridal portraits are an essential part of wedding photography, capturing the bride's beauty, emotions, and personal style before the whirlwind of the wedding day begins. These portraits provide a moment for the bride to feel confident and radiant, showcasing her dress, bouquet, and accessories in a relaxed setting. They also allow for creative, elegant, and beautifully lit images without the pressure of a fast-paced timeline. Beyond just stunning photos, bridal portraits become cherished keepsakes for years to come, preserving the joy and excitement of this special time in a bride's journey.

IT'S ALL IN THE DETAILS

Wedding detail shots are essential for preserving the small yet meaningful elements that make a couple's big day unique. These close-up images capture every detail - from the rings, bouquet, and invitation suite to the carefully chosen décor, attire embellishments, and sentimental heirlooms. They help tell the full story of the wedding day by highlighting the couple's style, personality, and the thought put into each element. Detail shots also provide a lasting memory of items that might otherwise be overlooked in the whirlwind of the day. For photographers, these images add depth to the wedding album, ensuring that every intricate aspect is beautifully documented and cherished for years to come.

GETTING READY

Some of the most intimate and joyful moments of a wedding day happen before the ceremony even begins, the quiet laughter with your best friends, the deep breaths between happy tears, the final touches, and the anticipation in the air. During this time, I take a calm, natural approach, offering gentle guidance when needed while allowing moments to unfold authentically. From shared glances in the mirror to spontaneous laughter and subtle nerves, I focus on capturing not just how it looked, but how it felt, preserving the emotion and connection that set the tone for your entire day

CEREMONY

The ceremony is the heart of the wedding day where everything slows down and the meaning of it all truly sets in. The exchanged vows, the nervous smiles, the tears that catch you off guard, and the way your hands find each other all tell a powerful story. I document the ceremony with a respectful, unobtrusive approach, allowing the moment to unfold naturally while capturing the emotion, connection, and reactions that make it uniquely yours. These are the moments that matter most, and my goal is to preserve them exactly as they felt, honest, heartfelt, and timeless.

THE AFTER “I DO”

The reception is where the day truly unfolds, when the nerves fade, the celebration begins, and everyone lets loose. From heartfelt toasts and tearful hugs to packed dance floors and spontaneous moments you didn't even realize were happening, I'll capture it all as it naturally comes together. With an eye for emotion, movement, and atmosphere, your reception photos preserve the joy, energy, and unforgettable memories that carry your celebration late into the night.

TIPS

CREATE A REALISTIC TIMELINE

The best timelines aren't packed, they're intentional. When you trust your photographer to help guide timing, your day unfolds with ease, giving space for emotion, connection, and the moments you'll remember long after the day ends.

CHOOSE THE RIGHT LIGHTNING

You don't need to understand lighting, your photographer does. Don't hesitate to discuss with your photographer recommendations on ceremony time and portrait locations, you're setting yourself up for the most beautiful version of your day.

A LITTLE PREP GOES A LONG WAY

Gather your important details, rings, invitations, vows, heirlooms, in one place, and keep your getting-ready space as tidy as possible. This saves time and allows your photos to feel clean, intentional, and beautifully focused on what matters without background distractions.

SOAK IT ALL IN

This day goes fast. Hold hands a little longer. Laugh loudly. Cry if you need to. The more you live in the moment, the more meaningful your photos will be. Let yourself pause, breathe, and take mental snapshots, those feelings are just as important as the photos themselves.

MEET THE SECOND SHOOTER

MEET MONICA!

If you choose to add a second shooter to your wedding day, you'll know exactly who's showing up, no guessing, no surprises. Monica West is my permanent second shooter, bringing consistency and trust to every wedding day. She is a U.S. Navy veteran originally from Texas, where she served for 30 years, an experience that shaped her strong sense of discipline and exceptional attention to detail. During her time in the Navy, she made it a priority to document people and meaningful moments around the world, developing a calm, observant presence that translates seamlessly into wedding days. Over the past year, she has been shadowing me closely, learning my wedding workflow and approach, and has since become not only my trusted second shooter but also my studio partner, helping ensure your day is captured thoughtfully, thoroughly, and with intention from every angle.

We are absolutely thrilled with our elopement experience, and Connor Stephenson Photography played an essential role in making it all come together beautifully. From the very start, she made the process stress-free, enjoyable, and incredibly comfortable. Choosing to elope in the stunning mountains, alongside a tranquil river in a picturesque vineyard, was a dream come true for us. Connor's expertise shone through as she captured the breathtaking scenery and the intimate moments we shared. Her understanding of natural light and composition brought out the beauty of our surroundings, making each photo feel like a work of art.

Throughout the day, Connor was not just our photographer but also a wonderful guide. She made us feel at ease in front of the camera, allowing our genuine emotions to shine through. Her ability to blend into the background while still capturing all the important moments was impressive.

We felt like we could truly be ourselves, and the results were stunning. The collection of photos we received is nothing short of magical. Each image beautifully encapsulates the love and joy we felt during our elopement, perfectly framing the mountains, river, and vineyard that made our day so special. We are incredibly grateful to Connor for her talent and dedication, and we highly recommend her to anyone looking to capture their elopement or special moments in a breathtaking setting. Thank you, Connor, for making our day unforgettable!
